Employment History:

Design, Print, Stationery, Flyers, Literature

2005–Dec. 2007: Copy Concept, West Yorkshire.

I was placed at Copy Concept, a small print & design bureau, on work experience. After the placement ended I was employed part time and rose through the organisation to take charge of design work and other large scale jobs. My responsibilities included getting jobs in, pricing & quoting, processing the task (design, print etc.) and finally dispatching the project. Reference available on request.

Jan. 2008–Jul. 2008: Keyclicks UK Ltd, West Yorkshire.

During my time at Copy Concept I began to venture into web design, to a point where I was handling freelance web projects as well as small maintenance projects. Keyclicks came across my online portfolio and contacted me offering me employment as a contract web developer. I worked with Keyclicks for six months and held leading knowledge on web standards and front-end development within the company. Reference available on request.
